Took my car for an oil change and filter. They added oil and kept the filter the same yet charged me $250. This place is a scam for people that don't know their cars. Brought back to place twice because of overfill on oil. Wouldn't let them work on my bicycle let alone my cars. Took my car for an oil change and filter. The first time using them was today. Fair prices, excellent customer service, and they did the job honestly and didn't charge for something that didn't need to be fixed. I used to work in an auto shop so I know what to look for. They did the oil change, told me the other thing I was concerned about wasn't an issue, and to bring it back if it continued to happen. Integrity is more important to me than anything else. I would pay more for an honest service than to pay less and get in the back later.

LIFE SAVER especially on my BIRTHDAY. I had a birthday event planned in Philly and was driving from New York. I ended up here after running over what looked like a burst tire on the highway. I thought the car was ok but was leaking oil. I got here on a Saturday at 2:30PM and would have been stuck and been forced to get a rental if it weren't for the manager (Jose Bravo) trying to save the day. He checked the bottom of the car and was able to fix the filter in less than an hour and put oil in. We were out and were able to make dinner. Other areas had closed at 3. Again, LIFE SAVER.
